

There are certain things you expect for your business...at the Clanard Court Hotel we added more

Independently owned hotel...

Giving us and you more flexibility to be different from the rest.

Modern, elegant, boutique style...

All our rooms have been designed with your business in mind.

Exceptional staff...

From friendliness to cleanliness our staff excel in their fields and deliver more than you'd expect.

Spacious, welcoming foyer...

Just one of our places to meet and greet colleagues.

The latest plug and play technology...

Plasma screens, integrated projectors, complimentary broadband access – all part of our in-house equipment to ensure a modern, successful business presentation at less cost.

Private outdoor patio...

A beautifully manicured garden or even a golf putting green for you to enjoy at break time. Furthermore we have additional outdoor areas which may be used for activities such as team building etc.

Large free car parking area...

Bigger than most so none of your guests are left on the roadside. Also suitable for displaying large machinery or equipment.

Perfectly placed...

the Dublin Road, Athy gives a speedy link to many major routes. Just 40 minutes from Dublin. A central link to Dublin, Carlow, Laois and Kilkenny.

Bored with boardrooms?

If you want that 'wow factor' we can team up with you to organise something really different - team building events, product launches, corporate entertainment.

Group Activities

Burtown House & Gardens

Burtown House & Gardens is located just minutes from the Hotel and provides an ideal place to spend an afternoon exploring lush flower, vegetable and woodlands gardens with beautiful park and farmland walks. Stop by their cafe and relax with a tea or coffee and some yummy baked treats to cap off a leisurely afternoon.

Athy Heritage Centre

Established to celebrate the vibrant socio-historic legacy of the area. It houses material and audio-visual programmes that chronicle the ancient, medieval and post 16th Century lives of people from Athy its hinterland. It is also home to a permanent exhibition to Ernest Shackleton, the Great Polar Explorer, including his sledge and a 15-foot model of his ship Endurance.

Kildare Town

In Kildare Town Learn about the mythology of Fionn Mac Cumhaill and St Brigid, patroness of the Gaels. Key stops along the route include St Brigid's Cathedral, a Norman tower house, the site of the Turf Club, and the twelfth century Franciscan Abbey.

Japanese Gardens

A living monument to the meeting of Eastern and Western cultures in a Western setting. The symbolism of life the garden portrays traces the journey of a soul from Oblivion to Eternity and the human experience of its embodiment as it journeys by paths of its own choice through life. Visit www.irishnationalstud.ie for more information.

Punchestown Racecourse

The Home of Irish National Hunt racing since 1827 Punchestown Racecourse hosts 18 meetings throughout the year. Set amidst 450 acres of magnificent Irish countryside in the heart of Ireland's thoroughbred county it is the perfect place to enjoy the excitement of a day at the races. The highlight being the five day Irish National Hunt Festival held at the end of April every year. View the fixtures list at www.punchestown.com.

Shopping

Kildare Retail Outlet Village is only 15 minutes from the hotel. Home to over 50 designer boutiques at up to 60% off RRP every day, all year round. We can arrange a VIP welcome for your group at Kildare Village with exclusive shopping offers and access to their VIP shopping lounge. Visit www.kildarevillage.com for more information

Newbridge Silverware is just 20 minutes from the hotel. The unique history of the company provides a wealth of tradition, craftsmanship and experience, while a contemporary and fresh attitude to marketing and design puts Newbridge Silverware on the cutting edge of modern living. Group Activities

Golf & Outdoor Activities

Dunmurry Springs

One of Ireland's most exciting and original new golf projects in recent years. Born out of a passion to utilise a very special site beside The Curragh, Mel Flanagan and his team have gone about crafting a classic piece of golf architecture in the mould of the great romantic courses like Sunningdale and Gleneagles, but with a distinctly Irish blend

Athy Golf Club

Formed in 1906 as a nine hole course and was extended to 18 holes in 1993. The course had a Par of 71 and it extended to 6,400 yards from the medal tees.

Cardenton House Golf Course

Well laid out course which is sand based and set in nicely maturing parkland. The course is an 18 hole course (16 Par 3, 2 Par 4) on a 50 acre site.

Angling

The town is a terminal point for a branch of the Grand Canal, which along with the River Barrow offers ideal opportunities for fishing, canoeing and pleasure boat cruising. Athy is located 8 miles from the angling centre of Vicarstown.

Annamoe Trout Fisheries Game Angling, 0404 45470

Angling for all Salmon Fishing 0402 36552

Adventure Sports

There are a range of adventure activities only a short drive from the hotel ranging from Quad Biking to outdoor fun parks.

Mondello Park Racing Circuit ,045 860 200, www.mondello.ie

Walking

Many of the riverbank areas are open to walkers as are a number of canal walks and these can be taken in whole or in part. There are a number of famous walks within easy reach of The Clanard Court such as South Leinster Way, Mount Leinster, Blackstairs Mountains and The Ridge, Stradbally and Saint Fiachra's Garden.

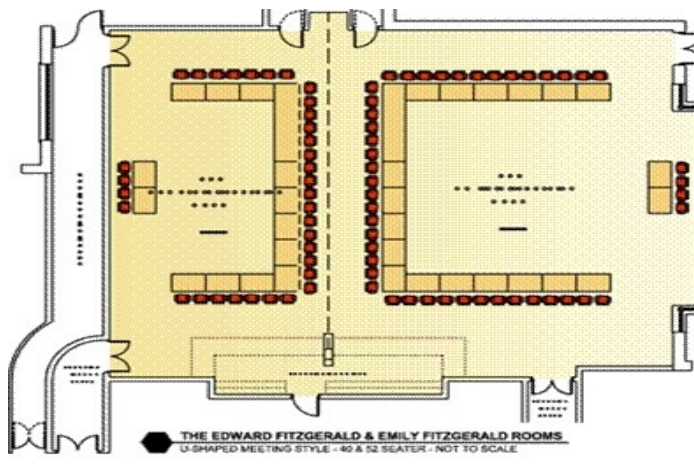

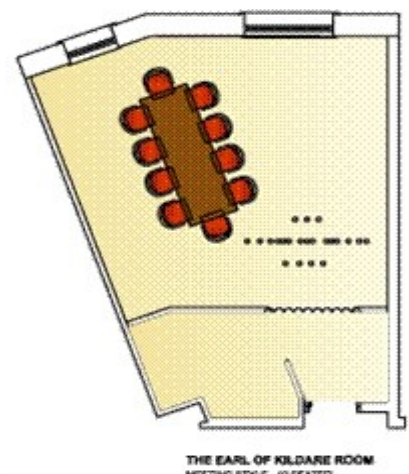

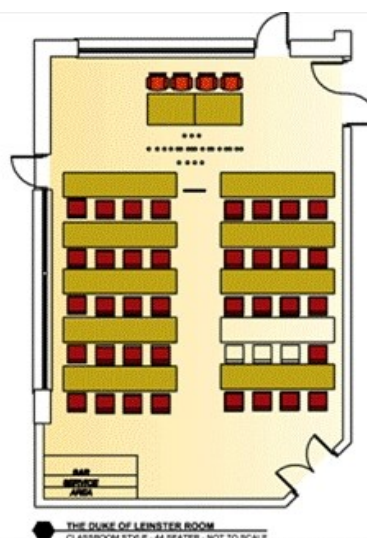

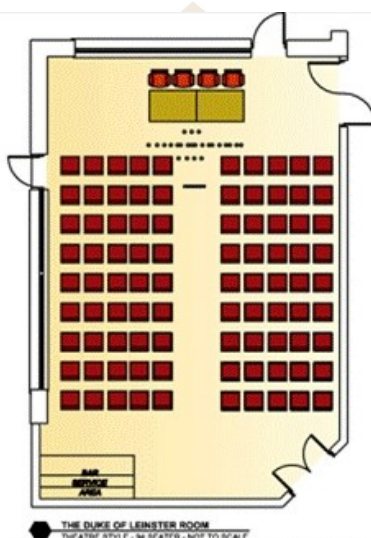

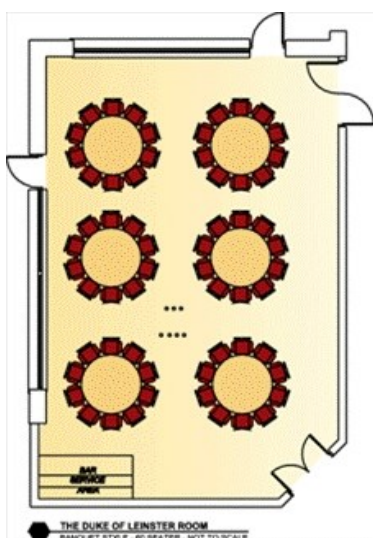

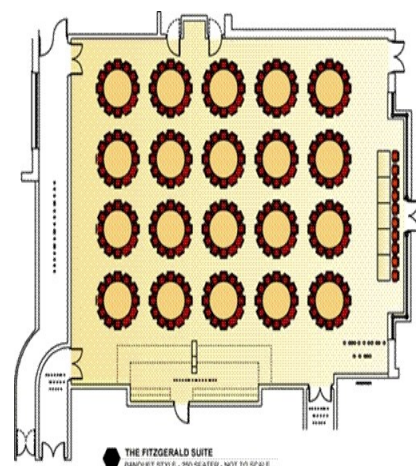

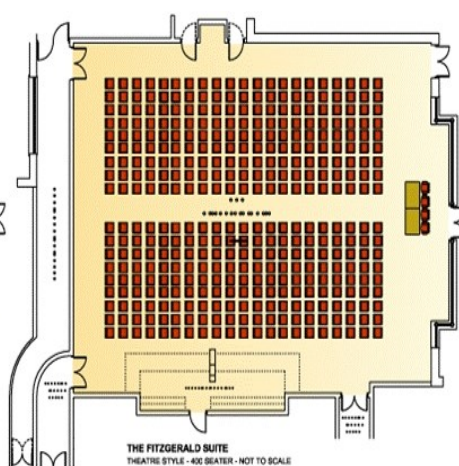

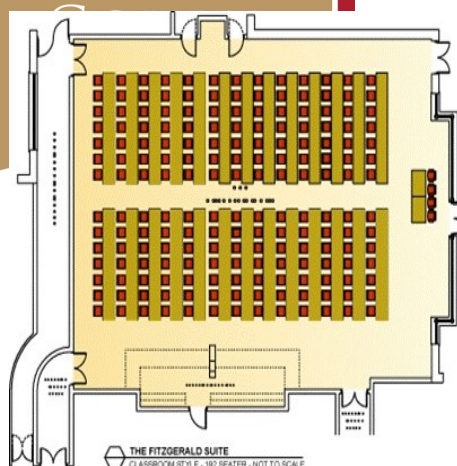

Cruising

The Barrow River provides many exciting activities for both the passive and the active water enthusiasts. It is probably one of the least known, yet magical inland waterways in Europe and it meanders through a scenic valley steeped in History and Heritage.
